HORSE PROUD OF HIS PANTS

Cleveland Equine, Clad in Trousers, Bids Defiance to Files and Fleas.

"There may be other horses in Cleveland that wear trousers," admitted the driver of Charlie, the delivery horse, "but there ain't no other one that appreciates them as much. Why, that horse is most human."

"Charlie had a sore knee some time ago, and I got that idea of putting overalls on him. He didn't take to the idea at first, but when he realized that he wasn't being bothered with flies that he couldn't get at save by stamping until he lamed himself, why, he just looked wise and accepted the situation.

"Now he don't want to leave the stable of a morning until he has his pants on. And he's as proud of that bonnet as a high school graduate is of a bunch of American Beauties. He don't pay any more attention to flies. Whips 'em off with his tail as far as he can reach and snorts at the balance. He's got a heap of horse sense, all right."

The Breath of Life.

It's a significant fact that the strongest animal if its size, the gorilla, also has the largest lungs. Powerful lungs means powerful creatures. How to keep the breathing organs right should be man's chief study. Like thousands of others, Mrs. Ora A. Stevens, of Port Williams, O., has learned how to do this. She writes: "Three bottles of Dr. King's New Discovery stopped my cough of two years and cured me of what my friends thought consumption. O, it's grand for throat and lung troubles." Guaranteed by Red Cross Pharmacy. Price 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

CHOSE DEATH BEFORE DISHONOR

Chicago Girl Jumps From Third Story Window to Escape Lying Broker's Embrace.

Braving death to escape dishonor, bright eyed Josephine Olson, one of the prettiest young women in the business district of Chicago, sprang from a third story window in the Brunswick hotel and received injuries from which it is feared she will die. She made the terrible leap to elude a wealthy La-salle broker who had decoyed her to the room on the pretext that a friend of hers was desperately ill. Her story is that hardly was she in the room when the broker betrayed the deception and attempted to encircle her with his arms. She repulsed him violently and, running through a private bathroom, clambered over the window sill and jumped to the bottom of a shaft.

She was stunned by the fall and lay in a huddled heap for many minutes. Recovering consciousness, she called for help and was rescued from her painful position by employees of the hotel. It was found she had struck a radiator in the course of her fall. The hotel people sent her to a hospital, but they let four hours go by before they informed the police of the desperate alternative she had chosen. Consequently the broker, who fled immediately after the girl's leap, got a long start on the police. He is said to have a wife and children, the wife being prominent in society.

Accused of Stealing a Courthouse.

Accused of stealing a courthouse, fifty citizens of Selby, S. D., are joint defendants in a suit for $10,000 brought by State Attorney Carl F. Cleland. The accused men are nearly all prominent citizens. Bangor was declared the county seat after an election. Selby contested and secured a judgment by alleged default. Selby citizens then went to Bangor, tore down the courthouse and removed the records to their town. The court's order was subsequently vacated, and the records were returned to Bangor.

Saves Baby From an Eagle.

Attracted by the cackling of his hens, C. H. Huber, a farmer living near Winsted, Conn., rushed outdoors and saw a large eagle circling in the air directly above a baby carriage in the yard. He carried the sleeping infant indoors and returning with a rifle shot and killed the eagle just as it was about to carry off a good sized hen. The eagle, of the baldheaded species, was the largest seen in Connecticut in years.

Killed Himself Before His Family.

After taking carbolic acid with suicidal intent, Otto Radock of St. Louis stood in front of a mirror, his wife and two children by his side, and watched his face grow paler and paler until he dropped dead to the floor. He had denied to his wife that he had taken poison. She stood by his side too frightened to move until after her husband was dead. No motive for the suicide is known by his family.

ROBBERS FLEE IN MOTOR CAR

Up to Date Bandits Blow Up and Loot Westbury (N. Y.) Postoffice.

A WOMAN AT THE WHEEL

Mysterious Blond Involved in Many Long Island Burglaries Turns Up Again in an Automobile.

The Westbury (N. Y.) postoffice was wrecked by dynamite and looted recently by burglars, who escaped in an automobile driven by a woman after shooting volleys at the villagers and wounding one man. Windows in adjoining stores and houses were blown out by the terrific explosions, two in all, that followed the attempt of the gang to carry away the postoffice safe in its entirety. The noise was so great that the entire village was awakened, and in a few minutes a posse of half clad men were chasing three men who ran from the building.

The burglars managed to grab $200 in money and many stamps, but overlooked $2,000 in one of the inner compartments of the safe, where Postmaster Taylor had placed the government's money with some of his own.

The men ran for nearly a mile through the village streets, followed by Daniel and William O'Connor and Charles Rollins. Although the men were unarmed, they pluckily ran on and were closing in on the burglars when the latter opened fire, firing nearly twenty times at the three men before one of them was hit. The arm of Rollins was shattered by a bullet. He dropped to the ground, and the O'Connor brothers, thinking he had been killed, carried him to an adjoining hotel. He soon regained consciousness, and, with fully 100 men, the chase after the burglars was renewed. On the Jericho turnpike, near the country place of Jay Phipps and Thomas Hitchcock, Jr., they were nearly overtaken when they were seen to jump into a large touring car, without a top, and were off in the direction of Old Westbury.

Several gun loads of shot and bullets from revolvers were fired at the fast moving machine without result.

A woman was at the wheel, and the machine had been cranked. As the three men tumbled in a heap into the auto it was off at top speed. The burglars succeeded in making their escape.

Earlier in the evening three men and one woman in a touring car were seen acting in a suspicious manner on the country seats of Samuel and Edward Willets at Brightstone and Old Westbury, but seeing the watchman running in their direction the men put on all power and made their escape. A woman with blond hair was driving the car. The same car and occupants were seen at Hempstead and Meadow Brook, near the Hunt club, and the places of O. H. P. Belmont, H. V. R. Kennedy, August Belmont and J. E. S. Madden, but the numerous dogs and watchmen frightened the supposed burglars away.

A few weeks ago the office of the Great South Bay Ferry company, on the shore below Freeport, was broken into and the safe robbed. It is now recalled that just before that robbery a strange woman, a tall blond, was seen about the office. She attracted no special attention at the time, but it is now believed that she was the same woman who occupied a seat in the Westbury burglars' motor.

It is also recalled that when the Farmingdale depot was robbed a month or six weeks ago a woman was seen with the men who did the job. The burglars on that occasion, however, used a wagon.

Don't Woman's Car to Escape Mob.

Herman Roth, a motorman whose car had rim down and crashed to death a child, escaped from an angry mob in Ridgewood heights, on the outskirts of Brooklyn, by disguising himself in a woman's clothes.

The Elephant's Sagacity.

Elephants, both in a wild state and in captivity, show a wonderful amount of sagacity. Those in India, it is said, smother themselves with mud as a protection against insects, and they will break branches from the trees and use them to brush away the flies.

FEEL EVERY CHANGE OF WEATHER

A Bad Back Is Always Worse During Wet or Changeable Weather.

Is your back like a barometer? Does it foretell every change of weather? Does every cold settle on your kidneys? Bring aching, throbbing pains? Does it disorder the urine? The kidneys are calling for help. Use Doan's Kidney Pills. Guaranteed by Barre testimony.

Mrs. Margaret Reid of 40 Maple avenue, Barre, Vt., says: "For more than three years I was bothered off and on with a severe backache. At night I would suffer so that I could not sleep and some mornings feeling tired and unrefreshed. During damp weather I was always worse and although I wore plaster I obtained only temporary relief. Doan's Kidney Pills were recommended to me and I went to E. A. Drown's drug store for a box. They seemed to help me after I had taken only a few doses. I continued using the remedy until the pains in my back were relieved and I could rest better nights. My health was benefited in other ways, and I am glad to recommend Doan's Kidney Pills whenever occasion arises."

For sale by all dealers. Price, 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

FAT GIRL IN POND IMPERILS BAPTISTS

High Tide Follows Her Immersion and Nearly Drowns the Minister.

Three persons had a narrow escape from drowning in a pond during a baptism at Doolittle's Mills, Ind., because Miss Ida Tuttle, one of those immersed, was so fat that when she entered the water it rose above the heads of the minister and a young man who was engaged to marry Miss Tuttle and who was to be baptized with her.

At first the water reached only to the waists of the minister and the young man convert. But the moment Miss Tuttle stepped into the pond the water surged up and engulfed all three. They were carried off their feet, but after a struggle were helped out.

Later in the day the young man was taken to a hospital with a broken leg. He reported that Miss Tuttle sat down suddenly on his lap, and he felt the bone snap.

Miss Tuttle keeps her weight a secret, but she looks as though it might be 325 pounds.

ROOSTER HATCHES OUT THREE EGGS

Sits Successfully For Two Weeks on Nest Faithless Hen Had Deserted.

Ben Bolt of Los Angeles is a conscientious bantam rooster who has gained considerable local fame by hatching out a brood of chickens after the nest had been deserted by his frivolous and faithless mate, Sweet Alice.

The original "setting" consisted of five eggs and a door knob. Sweet Alice having carelessly mislaid the rest of her eggs in whatever nest was huddiest and the door knob having been added by Mrs. H. D. Becker, owner of the barnyard, by way of encouraging the wayward Mrs. Bolt to "set."

This little hen did—until the novelty of it wore off. Then she deserted her nest, spouse and all, and joined a party of Houdan pullets, for which a handsome young topknoted rooster was scratching up worms. Seemingly Sweet Alice never gave another thought to her home duties or to the worried spouse she had left to wrestle with the domestic situation.

But Ben Bolt proved himself equal to the occasion and when his faithless mate failed to return to her cooling eggs settled himself upon the nest. For more than two weeks the patient rooster sat, only leaving the nest for a hurried grain of corn or an angleworm at mealtime. Finally four of the eggs "pipped" and three of the chicks struggled out of the shells. Ben is now caring for them devotedly and is fast rearing them into fat, roly poly young chickenhood.

Bricks of 1012.

The first bricks made in this country for building purposes were manufactured by colonists in Virginia in 1612. They were used in the construction of a church edifice at Jamestown and the residence of the governor of the state.
